

Cinnamon Oatmeal Pancakes

MADELINE SPERBER

Hello Seagate family,

As we are taking strong measures to contain the spread of COVID-19, self-quarantine and the temporary closing of businesses may affect normal food-related practices. We may find ourselves more inclined to eat emotionally during these unprecedented times. This is the time to stay as healthy as possible.

Good nutrition is crucial for health, particularly in times when our immune systems need to fight back. I am challenging you to drink more water, get out and exercise while enjoying our beautiful community (with a mask on and practicing social distancing of course), eat more vegetables and fruits while staying clear from highly processed foods, which tend to be high in fats, sugars and salt. Nonetheless, even with few and limited ingredients, one can continue eating a diet that supports good health. We are here to help and will be sending our simple healthy recipes for you to experiment with in your kitchen while you are home with your families. We look forward to having you back in good health.

Cheers to building our immune systems and coming out of this strong,
